CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE

Telegraphic Address. "JUSTICE"

Bangalore, dated 27th March 1923.

C No. 1163

S 1712-2-1

FROM

A. SREENIVASARAGAVACHARI, ESQ., B.,A., B.L.,
Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

27 MAR 1923

To

G. ARAVAMUDU IYENGAR, ESQ., B.A., B.L.,
General Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
B a n g a l o r e.

SIR,

I am directed to invite reference to Article 168 (e) Books, clause (3), contained in Volume I of the Mysore Account Code in the matter of the delegation of power to Heads of Departments to purchase books for their own office or for their subordinate offices subject to certain conditions, and to state as follows :--

In the case of the subordinate civil courts where usually no separate allotment is made for the purchase of books and law journals, such purchases are now met from the contingent grants of the courts, which procedure, it may be observed, is not, -- strictly speaking, in accordance with clauses (e) and (f) of - Article 168 of the Mysore Account Code. In the case of the Chief Court a special sum is annually provided, for the purchase of books and law journals, but the allotment has occasionally been found insufficient and the expenditure had to be met by re-appropriation from other heads. Whatever reasons may have originally existed for restricting the general power of re-appropriation by Heads of Departments, from one minor head to another
